✕ Akrotiri and Emporio Village Tour

Interests: history, culture, architecture

Enjoy the day with your private driver and guide as you explore the spectacular island of Santorini. You will start your tour by heading to the Minoan Bronze Age settlement of Akrotiri on the southern part of the island and which has a great number of remarkably well-preserved remains of vibrant Frescoes and artifacts. From there, we will head to Emporio, the largest village in Santorini, and which once was the center of the commercial affairs on the island. Nowadays, the village is a peaceful settlement with beautiful houses and yards, many of which have been renovated, making the place very attractive. You can find plenty of shops, cafes, bars and traditional taverns along with admirable, blue-domed churches and tiny chapels. The main attraction of Emporio is the medieval Kasteli, one of the five fortified castles of Santorini. Inside the castle there is a church that dates back to the 16th century.

✕ Akrotiri Archaeological Tour

Interests: archeology, history, outdoor activities

Enjoy the day with your private driver and guide as you explore the history of Santorini. The focal point of your tour will be the Minoan Bronze Age settlement of Akrotiri or the 'Greek Pompeii', located on the southern part of the island. In prehistory, Akrotiri was a well-connected Minoan port town, with connections to mainland Greece and as far afield as Egypt and Syria. As the town was covered in ash following a volcanic eruption on the island, preservation of the settlement is exceptional, making this one of the most significant archaeological sites in Greece. Today the site is covered by a bioclimatic roof and walkways are suspended above the archaeological remains, allowing visitors to walk among the two and three-story buildings.

✕ Caldera Steps at Santorini Village (Imerovigli-Firostefani Blue Dome-Oia)

Interests: outdoor activities, architecture, history

The astounding view from Imerovigli Village is a memory that you will treasure for a lifetime. In this tour, you will admire the famous Blue Dome of Firostefani, take photos of the amazing Caldera landscapes at the most famous village of Santorini, the village of Oia, while walking by the alleys of the village and later watching the most beautiful sunset of Greece.

✕ Santorini Treasures Hiking Experience

Interests: hiking, outdoor activities, history, culture

One of the best ways to explore Santorini, find the hidden gems of the island and appreciate the breath-taking view is by doing a hiking tour. This 2,5-hour tour will take you through some of the most picturesque places of the island: Panagia Episkopi church, Mesa Gonia, St. George refuge, and Pyrgos village. The tour includes an experienced English-speaking hiking guide who will assist you throughout this experience.
