✕ Il Cortile

The building in which IL CORTILE resides was used by the church choir back in the Collège des Frères St. Pierre times. This building was particularly special for the church because it was where the choir practiced, and it was also the place where the visitors watched the choir with admiration. IL CORTILE and its building gracefully carry traces of all the eras they have witnessed, and the echoes of the past can be seen in the architecture, decor, menu, and music, as well as the atmosphere.
