FINE DINING (reservations recommended)

- ✕ ANAYA travels to Asia for inspiration in Ikos Dassia properties. Consultant Japanese chef Katsuhiko Hanamure (Katsu) brings dishes from Thailand, India, and China together, served in a moody dining room that is slick and sophisticated. Start with 'Tom Yum Kung Thai Spicy Soup with Shrimps' or 'House Gyoza with Chicken and Teriyaki Sauce' and move on to 'Hoisin Duck with Daikon Purée and Pickled Cucumber' or 'Kung Pao Tofu with Vegetables and Cashew Nuts'. To end there's 'Choco Balls with Lemongrass Ice Cream' or 'Roasted Pineapple with Coconut Ice Cream'.
- ✕ Pomo D' Oro is located in a historic building in the heart of the Old Town. The owner/head chef, Aristotelis, mixes modern Greek and Mediterranean cuisine with his own personal style.
- ✕ The Venetian Well One of the most atmospheric restaurants in Corfu since it is housed in a beautiful mansion of Venetian Architecture. The journey is instantaneous and the sensual and taste experience unparalleled.

CASUAL DINING

- ✕ Ouzo is a classic Greek restaurant with menus by chef Lefteris Lazarou in Ikos Dassia properties. The sea-front eatery is a light-drenched space, with all-white décor and fragrant lemon trees, and offers a fine-dining take on hearty Greek dishes – think: ‘Shrimps Saganaki cooked with Limnio Wine, Tomatoes and Oregano’ and ‘Lamb Kleftiko with Potato Purée’.
- ✕ ERGON is not to be missed in Ikos Dassia properties. It harnesses the best of local Corfu island cuisine in a setting that has a beachy vibe with rattan furniture, sea views, and driftwood features. The menu features standouts such as ‘Seabass Carpaccio with Orange Salad, Fennel and Sweet Paprika’ and ‘Corfu– Venice Risotto with Cuttlefish Ink and Orange Zest’, conceived by Michelin-star chef Hector Botrini.
- ✕ REX found in the center of Corfu old town, on the historic Kapodistriou Street, is a good choice. The family-run restaurant was founded in 1932 and offers a range of Greek classic dishes – such as ‘Octopus in Vinegar’, ‘Veal Sofrito’, and ‘Pastitsado’.
