CASUAL DINING

- ✕ Ouzo is a classic Greek restaurant with menus by chef Lefteris Lazarou in Ikos Dassia properties. The sea-front eatery is a light-drenched space, with all-white décor and fragrant lemon trees, and offers a fine-dining take on hearty Greek dishes – think: ‘Shrimps Saganaki cooked with Limnio Wine, Tomatoes and Oregano’ and ‘Lamb Kleftiko with Potato Purée’.
- ✕ ERGON is not to be missed in Ikos Dassia properties. It harnesses the best of local Corfu island cuisine in a setting that has a beachy vibe with rattan furniture, sea views, and driftwood features. The menu features standouts such as ‘Seabass Carpaccio with Orange Salad, Fennel and Sweet Paprika’ and ‘Corfu–Venice Risotto with Cuttlefish Ink and Orange Zest’, conceived by Michelin-star chef Hector Botrini.
- ✕ REX found in the center of Corfu old town, on the historic Kapodistriou Street, is a good choice. The family-run restaurant was founded in 1932 and offers a range of Greek classic dishes – such as ‘Octopus in Vinegar’, ‘Veal Sofrito’, and ‘Pastitsado’.
