FINE DINING (reservations recommended)

- ✕ Bariello - Locally sourced high-quality foods. Greek specialties with some international favorites

CASUAL DINING

- ✕ Medusa Restaurant \(Mandrakia\) - Located on the seaside and providing a great view, it offers traditional Greek- Milos recipes made from the freshest local ingredients
- ✕ Armenaki \(Pollonia\) - Another beachfront restaurant, a great selection of wine and seafood dishes. Menu changes regularly to incorporate daily catch and fresh ingredients
- ✕ O Hamos \(Adamas\) - Traditional Greek cuisine with handwritten menus. Family-style cooking, great for a hearty meal after a swim. The restaurant serves meat and cheese produced on their own farm.
- ✕ Mikros Apoplous \(Adamas\) - Seafront dining with stunning sunsets. Featuring fresh seafood
- ✕ Hanabi \(Pollonia\) - Trendy seaside Japanese restaurant, with great sushi, signature cocktails, and amazing sunset views
- ✕ Embourios Taverna - located on the remote western side of Milos, perfect for long leisurely lunches by the sea. Traditional taverna and a firm favorite with the locals. Try the fried feta with honey.

BAR / COCKTAILS

- ✕ Utopia Café - Cocktails with a sunset view

BEACHES

- ✕ Sarakiniko is the most photographed Aegean landscape: Sarakiniko featuring a unique moonscape
- ✕ Kleftiko used to be an old hide-out for pirates that hid protected in its small creeks and imposing rocks. It is only accessible by boat
- ✕ Aghia Kyriaki is a beautiful white-sand beach with turquoise waters
- ✕ Paliochori is one of the most famous beaches on the island, favored both by locals and visitors. It is covered by sand and pebbles of impressive colors that contribute to the blue and green shades of its crystal waters
- ✕ Fyriplaka is a long beach with fine sand and sharp, vertical, volcanic rocks in impressive colors
- ✕ Provatas is a wide soft-sand beach ideal for families
- ✕ Papafragas lies by the ruins of the prehistoric town of Phylakopi
- ✕ Triades is a beach trio on the western part of the island with amazing scenery that is primitive and looks untouched
