Day 10

Private Olive Oil Tasting Tour

On your tour today, visit the Theotoky Estate. Located in the Ropa Valley, in the center of the Island, the estate has been in the family for many generations, as Theotoky is one of the oldest families in Greece. Spanning over 300 acres, and covered almost entirely by pine trees, olive trees and vineyards, it is one of the few ecological and peaceful spots that still exist. The locally famous and of excellent quality Theotoky wine is produced in the estate's 30 acres vineyards. The wine exists in two main varieties, dry white and red.

The estate also has an abundance of olive trees, which are grown in the fields without the use of chemical fertilizers. The harvesting is done directly from the trees and olives are milled in the cold press. There are also many farm animals such as sheep, horses, cows, and donkeys run about and reproduce freely. Every morning, the estate's owner Mr. George Theotoky personally attends to the feeding of the animals, which gather around him for that purpose.

You will have the opportunity to tour the winery and olive oil refinery. After the tour, you will enjoy a typical Greek meze of local produce grown on the estate (consisting of light snack with organic tomatoes, olives, salami, feta from a local producer, two wines and bread to taste the olive oil) along with a glass of wine.
